ORPHANS' DAY AT THE CIRCUS.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON NEXT SET APART FOR THE CHILDREN—SIGHTS WHICH THEY MAY SEE.

The inmates of all the charitable institutions of the city will be admitted free to the Barnum and Bailey Greatest Show on Earth next Tuesday afternoon, April 13, provided notice is given by the managers of the number of seats required for each institution.

This is absolutely necessary in order that the children and other inmates may be properly cared for and spaces allotted them. No part of the house will be restricted, the boxes, arena seats and choicest parts of Madison Square Garden being freely and generously set aside so that the little folks may have the best opportunity of feasting their eyes upon the glories and manifold attractions of the great show. Those who arrive early will have the additional pleasure of seeing the animals in the menagerie, the glances, the little midget, weighing only six and one-half pounds; the elephants, camels and the circus vaudeville entertainment, all of which are in the basement. These managers of institutions desiring to favor the children should inform J. A. Bailey at once of their intention, as little time remains to make arrangements.

If the various negotiations now pending to save Madison Square Garden to the public should come to naught, this may be the last opportunity these little folks will enjoy of receiving valuable impressions from the natural history and other departments of the big show.

IN SORE NEED OF MONEY.

The Workrooms for Unskilled Women, under the auspices of the Charity Organization Society, are greatly in need of $2,000, in addition to their annual subscriptions, to support them for the coming year. Without this they must close. The workrooms are at No. 47 Prospect Street, between Forty-second and Forty-third streets, and First and Second avenues. They have been open for three years, and have given help to many needy women. The average attendance is nearly a week. Through personal influence, women are so used to a desire for independence, there is

OFFICERS AT REVOLVER PRACTICE.

The officers of the Second Division, 1st Naval Battalion, began revolver practice at the 74th Regiment Armory on April 9, and although they had little or no practice before that time, they made creditable scores. The boats will be put on the water this week, and racing crews will be selected to compete for the Greer trophy and the officers' cup. Among the plans for the coming season is a tour of camp on the shore of Long Island Sound, from which spot the annual regatta will take place.

A TICKET AGENT'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Emanuel E. Sartorio, forty-one years old, a Spaniard by birth, and a ticket agent at Nineteenth-st. and Second-ave. for the Manhattan Elevated Rail-way Company, dropped dead in the City Hall station of the Third-ave. road at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He had been on a leave of absence for several days on account of illness, and the exertion of going up the stairs of the station exhausted him. He told J. B. McLaughlin, the chopper, that he felt ill. An ambulance was summoned from the Hudson Street Hospital, but before it arrived Sartorio was dead.

Hattian Elevated General manager of the Manhattan Elevated Railway, said that Sartorio was one of the most trusted employees of the road. Sartorio had been coming on a road for the last fifteen years and had been a ticket agent for

FOUND HIS VICTIM IN A BARBER SHOP.

A colored man, Samuel King, thirty-five years old, of No. 32 West Fourth-st., when arraigned in the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday morning, and charged with feloniously assaulting Cornelius Bruce, a colored barber, of No. 14 West Twenty-sixth-st., having shot him in the arm, said: "Yes, I shot him—of course I shot him."

King walked into Bruce's barber shop on Friday night and fired point blank at Bruce. Had the latter not put his arm in front of his face he would have been killed. King got back from Cuba about a week ago. Upon reaching this city he heard stories about himself which were derogatory and those who told them to him said that they came from Bruce. King went about looking for Bruce and found him at 11 o'clock, when the shooting occurred. A surgeon from the New-York Hospital dressed Bruce's wound. The bullet lodged in his arm.

AN IMPROVING FRUIT MARKET.

PRICES STEADY AND STRONG—LEMONS SLIGHTLY ADVANCED—ORANGES IN ONLY MODERATE SUPPLY.

There was some improvement in the wholesale fruit trade last week, and yesterday the market closed with prices steady and strong. Lemons were in increased demand, both by local dealers and out-of-town merchants. The price of choice sound Sicily lemons was slightly advanced, although a cargo which was of inferior quality was sold at port rates. The quantity of lemons now on the way to ports of the United States is 158,500 boxes, of which 109,900 boxes are destined for the city. There are 65,000 boxes on the way to Montreal. Prices of lemons range from $1.30 to $2.25 a box, according to the size and condition of the fruit. A further early advance is predicted.

There were forty-two carloads of California oranges sold here last week, against six carloads the preceding week. Navels, which are rapidly becoming scarce, were in good demand and sold for $2.75 to $4.40 a box. Seedlings were in only moderate demand at from $1.50 to $2.50 a box. Mediterranean oranges were in plentiful supply and moved slowly at from $1.75 to $2.50 a box for Messina, and from $2.75 to $3.75 a case for Valencia. There are now on the way to ports of the United States, 83,000 boxes of Mediterranean oranges, of which 50,000 boxes are destined for this city. There are 6,000 boxes on the way to Montreal. The orange supply is only moderate and the tendency of prices for choice fruit is upward.

Havana pineapples are scarce on account of the Cuban disturbance. Strawberry pines are selling for from $1.50 to $2.50 a box. Only 250 barrels were received here in the week.

Bananas are in ample supply and fair demand. The receipts for the week were 49,500 bunches, against 45,000 bunches in the corresponding week of last year. Applewell, Port Limon and Jamaica bananas are selling for $1.50 a bunch for "A's,"

CONSENT OF ELM-ST. PROPERTY-OWNERS.

The committee appointed to represent the owners of property in Elm-st. conferred with officers of the Rapid Transit Board yesterday afternoon with a view to ascertaining the exact plan of construction proposed by the Rapid Transit Board in Elm-st., the probable effect of the construction on the adjoining property and the local effect of giving the latter an outlet to the river.

Colonel Cruizer, one of the members of the committee present, did not sign the formal consent on behalf of the Trinity Corporation, but he assented to the giving of the consents and will sign the letter to the other owners of Elm-st. property.
